

Armando Milani

Armando Milani is an internationally renowned designer who believes that designers have a responsibility to focus energy on alleviating human needs. He is a master of visual language, creating messages that transcend national and cultural boundaries. Milani's public lecture, Ethics and Emergency, will showcase his humanitarian design work and his humanitarian project: Ubuntu.

“Ethics and Emergency”

Visiting Artists & Scholars

School of Art and Design
NYS College of Ceramics
Alfred University

Wednesday
April 25

5:00pm
Holmes Auditorium
Free and open to the public